Following the vote, Alderman Lafontaine stated that he voted no on the Budget saying that it's not that he does not agree with the budget, the budget is a good budget. He said he knows the Mayor, City Clerk Planchard, and Comptroller Ron Duckworth worked hard on the budget and appreciated all the work on it; the only part he disagreed with on the budget was the payroll portion of the budget, everything else looked good. Alderman Lafontaine said he did not vote against the budget based on the pay raises; he thinks that every employee deserves and has earned the pay raise; the 3% across the board.
